

NAJU
*Web
Contents*

2022년 01월 29일 22시 54분

목차

목차	2
Traditional Market	3
Naju Moksagoeul Market	3
Information	3
Yeongsanpo Folk Market	3
Information	4

Naju Moksagoel Market

The Naju Moksagoel market won the Presidential Award for Excellence in 2012. It is “Korea’s first fusion market” that combines a permanently established market with a 5-day market. It has been selected as a culture tourism market and has held various events during the past 3 years. It is well known as a market that has an abundance of culture, food, and joy.

Information

Address	Opening day	Hours of use	Number of stores	Item
14, Cheongdong-gil, Naju-si, Jeollanam-do, Republic of Korea	A permanent market(everyday) / 5-day market(4,9day)	09:00~21:00	127 Store	Skate, Sesa me oil, fish

Yeongsanpo Folk Market

The Yeongsanpo Folk Market was established during the Japanese colonial period. When the Yeongsanpo fishing port was flourishing, this market was one of the 5 sites that represented the western and southern coasts. Recently a fish shop has been added, and it has been transformed into a modern, easy-to-use market for customers.

Information

Address	Opening day	Hours of use	Number of stores	Item
12-14, Pungmulsijang 2-gil, Naju-si, Jeollanam-do, Republic of Korea	5-day market(0,5day)	09:00~19:00	86 Store	Skate, Fish, Dried fish

COPYRIGHT © NAJU-SI. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.

NAJU

Web Contents

